

Courage amid the adventure

Life is full of adventures and risks,
And to face them, we have to be aware of several tricks,
And amid this adventure, there are people who may discourage you,
And to encourage and help you, may be there a few

True friend is one who always helps in need,
As said, a friend in need is a friend indeed.
But friends are not those, you may laugh when you fail,
And you may feel as if you are arrested in a jail!

While crossing a road, you have a little fear,
Because the cars and the trucks would be crossing you near,
What you do is that you patiently wait for some time,
Because this is highly prime!
